

Leading with Cultural Intelligence

SUGGESTED PROPOSAL TOPICS

What is Cultural Intelligence and why is it important

Moving from representation to inclusion in terms of diversity and minority rights.

The learning mindset: how to enter conversations with the desire and will to learn and not to preach.

What intersectional identity means for interactions in the 21st century?

Cultural awareness in technology and design.

Having difficult conversation: confrontation with kindness and respect.

Stereotyping and the danger of a single story.

Teenage leadership

What can be achieved from a growth mindset when navigating the East and the West.

How can cultural intelligence benefit businesses globally?

Why is culture and self-awareness important to cultural intelligence?

How can cultural intelligence be improved within schools?

The effect of cultural intelligence on international students

Religion and cultural intelligence

Can cultural intelligence reduce or prevent xenophobia?

The cultural intelligence scale – how to find out how well versed you are in different cultures and see where there is room for improvement.

Architecture and links to culture and history

Culture and Conflict

What has been done in your school to make it a more inclusive environment for all people?

Tell us about a school wide initiative that celebrates diversity. How did it come about? Why was it important?